Stop your run-away coding costs!

Want to roll back the clock on ICD-10 service & technology price hikes?

You invested heavily before the transition, but now that it’s here, ICD-10 feels more like Y2K than the predicted armageddon. Slight impact to coder productivity is real, but it’s not enough to justify the huge cost jump moving forward.

If you’re looking for labor and technology rates that make sense again, FutureNet has them:

- Low cost inpatient & outpatient coders with experience and proven quality
- No minimum overflow volumes up to complete department outsourcing
- Accurate & efficient cloud-based encoder, CAC &/or complete coding platforms
- Highly reliable track record with SSAE 16/ SOC 2 audited security infrastructure
- Exceptional customer service team known for superior client communications
- Over 20 year’s experience exclusively dedicated to clinical documentation

Coding capacity or coding quality?

You get both!

Our capacity erases backlogs. Our quality delivers confidence.

- Remote coding and abstracting
- Facility and professional component coding
- Coding compliance reviews

Accelerate your ICD-10 productivity and quality. Overcome coding denials.

Let’s talk details today!

MISSION POSSIBLE

Even the most skilled team will underperform with average tools. For superior results — CDI, coding & quality — you need flexible, integrated tools. Tools that prioritize cases automatically; tools that give you efficiency clues; tools that help you solve the case.

In fact, superior tools like those from RecordsOne can take your program from the impossible, to possible. Clinical Documentation & Coding Integrity are part of solving the bigger Clinical Revenue Integrity mystery.

IF YOU COULD DESIGN YOUR OWN ENCODER, IT WOULD PROBABLY WORK A LOT LIKE OURS.

That’s because the TruCode Encoder is designed by HIM professionals. Our intuitive, knowledge-based solution is built to be coder-friendly. For example, our unique Research Pane gives you immediate access to the latest coding references without any additional searching.

With the TruCode Encoder you can assign more accurate codes in less time while streamlining your workflows.
